c.	The chair of a committee or a sub-committee may convene an extraordinary meeting of the committee or the sub-committee at any time.
d.	If the chair of a committee or a sub-committee does not call an extraordinary meeting within 7 days of having been requested to do so by 3 members of the committee or the sub-committee, any 3 members of the committee or the sub-committee may convene an extraordinary meeting of the committee or the subcommittee.

6.	Previous Resolutions
a.	A resolution shall not be reversed within six months except either by a special motion, which requires written notice by at least 4 councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with standing order 8, or by a motion moved in pursuance of the recommendation of a committee or a sub-committee.
b.	When a motion moved pursuant to standing order 6(a) has been disposed of, no similar motion may be moved for a further six months.
7.	Voting on Appointments
	Where more than two persons have been nominated for any position to be filled by the Council and of the votes given there is not an absolute majority in favour of one person, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken, and so on until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. A tie in votes may be settled by the casting vote exercisable by the chairman of the meeting.
8.	Motions for a meeting that require written notice to be given to the Proper Officer
a.	A motion shall relate to the responsibilities of the meeting which it is tabled for and in any event shall relate to the performance of the council's statutory functions, powers and obligations or an issue which specifically affects the council's area or its residents.
b.	No motion may be moved at a meeting unless it is on the agenda and the mover has given written notice of its wording to the Proper Officer at least 4 clear days before the meeting. Clear days do not include the day of the notice or the day of the meeting.
c.	The Proper Officer may, before including a motion on the agenda received in accordance with standing order 8(b) above, correct obvious grammatical or typographical errors in the wording of the motion.
d.	If the Proper Officer considers the wording of a motion received in accordance with standing order 8(b) above is not clear in meaning, the motion shall be rejected until the mover of the motion resubmits it, so that it can be understood, in writing to the Proper Officer at least 4 clear days before the meeting.
e.	If the wording or subject of a proposed motion is considered improper, the Proper Officer shall consult with the chairman of the forthcoming meeting or, as the case may be, the councillors who have convened the meeting, to consider whether the motion shall be included in the agenda or rejected.
f.	f. The decision of the Proper Officer as to whether or not to include the motion on the agenda shall be final.

g.	g. Motions received shall be recorded in a book for that purpose and numbered in the order that they are received.
h.	h. Motions rejected shall be recorded in a book for that purpose with an explanation by the Proper Officer for their rejection.
9.	Motions at a meeting that do not require written notice
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. The following motions may be moved at a meeting without written notice to the Proper Officer;</li> <li>ii. to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes of a meeting;</li> <li>iii. to move to a vote;</li> <li>iv. to defer consideration of a motion;</li> <li>v. to refer a motion to a particular committee or sub-committee;</li> <li>vi. to appoint a person to preside at a meeting;</li> <li>vii. to change the order of business on the agenda;</li> <li>viii. to proceed to the next business on the agenda;</li> <li>ix. to require a written report;</li> <li>x. to appoint a committee or sub-committee and their members;</li> <li>xi. to extend the time limits for speaking;</li> <li>xii. to exclude the press and public from a meeting in respect of confidential or sensitive information which is prejudicial to the public interest;</li> <li>xiii. to not hear further from a councillor or a member of the public;</li> <li>xiv. to exclude a councillor or member of the public for disorderly conduct;</li> <li>xv. to temporarily suspend the meeting;</li> <li>xvi. to suspend a particular standing order (unless it reflects mandatory statutory requirements);</li> <li>xvii. to adjourn the meeting; or</li> <li>xviii. to close a meeting.</li> </ul>
10.	Rules of Debate at Meetings
a.	Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
b.	A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
c.	A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
d.	If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
	An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not

e.	negate the motion.
f.	If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
g.	An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
h.	A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
i.	If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.
j.	Subject to standing order 10(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
k.	One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
l.	A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
m.	The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
n.	Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate on the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
o.	Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;</li> <li>ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke;</li> <li>iii. to make a point of order;</li> <li>iv. to give a personal explanation; or</li> <li>v. to exercise a right of reply.</li> </ul>
p.	During the debate on a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he is concerned by. A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his

q. r. s.	decision shall be final. When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. to amend the motion;</li> <li>ii. to proceed to the next business;</li> <li>iii. to adjourn the debate;</li> <li>iv. to put the motion to a vote;</li> <li>v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;</li> <li>vi. to refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration;</li> <li>vii. to exclude the public and press;</li> <li>viii. to adjourn the meeting; or</li> <li>ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.</li> </ul> Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply. Excluding motions moved under standing order 10(r), the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed 5 minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.
11.	Disorderly Conduct at Meetings
a. b. c.	No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct. If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or be excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion. If a resolution made under standing order 11(b) is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.
12.	Management of Information (See also standing order 21.)
a.	The Council shall have in place and keep under review, technical and organisational measures to keep secure information (including personal data) which it holds in paper and electronic form. Such arrangements shall include deciding who has access to personal data and encryption of personal data. Such date will include recordings of meetings held by the Council.
b.	The Council shall have in place, and keep under review, policies for the retention and safe destruction of all information (including personal data) which it holds in paper and electronic form. The Council's retention policy shall confirm the period for which information (including personal data) shall be retained or if this is not possible the criteria used to determine that period (e.g. the Limitation Act 1980).

c.	The agenda, papers that support the agenda and the minutes of a meeting shall not disclose or otherwise undermine confidential information or personal data without legal justification.
d.	Councillors, staff, the Council’s contractors and agents shall not disclose confidential information or personal data without legal justification.
13.	Draft Minutes
a.	If the draft minutes of a preceding meeting have been served on councillors with the agenda to attend the meeting at which they are due to be approved for accuracy, they shall be taken as read.
b.	There shall be no discussion about the draft minutes of a preceding meeting except in relation to their accuracy. A motion to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes shall be moved in accordance with standing order 8(a)(i).
c.	The accuracy of draft minutes, including any amendment(s) made to them, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.
d.	If the chairman of the meeting does not consider the minutes to be an accurate record of the meeting to which they relate, he shall sign the minutes and include a paragraph in the following terms or to the same effect:  “The chairman of this meeting does not believe that the minutes of the meeting of the ( ) held on [date] in respect of ( ) were a correct record but his view was not upheld by the meeting and the minutes are confirmed as an accurate record of the proceedings.”
e.	Subject to standing order 22(a) and following a resolution which confirms the accuracy of the minutes of a meeting, the draft minutes or recordings of the meeting for which approved minutes exist shall be destroyed.
f.	No later than seven working days of a council meeting, the council must publish electronically a note setting out:  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The names of the members who attended the meeting, and any apologies for absence;</li> <li>• Any declarations of interest; and</li> <li>• Any decisions taken at the meeting, including the outcomes of any votes.</li> </ul> The requirements regarding the note to be published after a council meeting do not apply for private business or where disclosure would be detrimental to acting on those decisions.

14.	Code of Conduct and Dispensations See also standing order 2(s).
a.	Councillors and non-councillors with voting rights shall observe the code of conduct adopted by the Council.
b.	All councillors and non-councillors with voting rights shall undertake training in the code of conduct within six months of the delivery of their acceptance of office form.
c.	Dispensation requests shall be in writing and submitted to the standards committee of the County Council as soon as possible before the meeting that the dispensation is required for.
15.	Code of Conduct Complaints
a.	Upon notification by the County Council that it is dealing with a complaint that a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights has breached the Council's code of conduct, the Proper Officer shall, subject to standing order 14, report this to the Council.
b.	Where the notification in standing order 15(a) relates to a complaint made by the Proper Officer, the Proper Officer shall notify the Chairman of Council of this fact, and the Chairman shall nominate another staff member to assume the duties of the Proper Officer in relation to the complaint until it has been determined.
c.	The Council may:
	i. provide information or evidence where such disclosure is necessary to investigate the complaint or is a legal requirement;
	ii. seek information relevant to the complaint from the person or body with statutory responsibility for investigation of the matter;
	iii. indemnify the councillor or non-councillor with voting rights in respect of his related legal costs and any such indemnity is subject to approval by a meeting of the Council.
16.	Proper Officer
a.	The Proper Officer shall be either (i) the clerk or (ii) other staff member(s) nominated by the Council to undertake the work of the Proper Officer when the Proper Officer is absent.
	i. The Proper Officer shall at least three clear days before a meeting of the council, a committee or a sub-committee:
	a) Arrange for the serving of the notice (including how the meeting may be
